Job Posting

Research Assistant or Postdoc (TV-LE 13, 50%-part time/TV-LE 13, 100%-full-time)

The Institute for Economic Research (Chair of Economic Theory, Prof Oliver Landmann), offers two part-time positions. The contracts will start on October 1, 2018 and are limited in duration to expire no later than March 31, 2020. The positions can be filled on the basis of two part-time contracts (50%) or one full-time contract (100%).

The successful candidate(s) will assist in the research and in the teaching of graduate and undergraduate courses by the Chair of Macroeconomics.

We invite applications from Postdocs, Doctoral candidates in Economics or from Graduates interested in getting work experience while looking for a PhD Program. A degree in Economics (M.Sc. or higher) is required.

Applicants should have an excellent background in Macroeconomics and a firm command of English (the job involves teaching in the English-language Master Program of the Department).

Please submit your application by June 15, preferably via email to:
